"In Love With Hate"

This feeling can't be
Belonging to me
My torment can't be,
Our story can't be
Just one more lie
This calling can't be,

It hurts so much I bleed pain
It reminds me I'm in love with hate

My distress can't be overcome
You're the one
This moment can't be,
My tears are blades slipping down my face
My wounds cry, cry for revenge I can't let go

It hurts so much I bleed pain
Deep inside
Fragments of joy tattooed on me
It hurts so much I bleed pain
I bleed pain
I'm in love with hate
