Hear the ... about a thousand time
I know i've been that place.
You slipped your lip down to hail
Towards my face.
As you're crying in your sleep
The curtain must feel this right,
I'd be coming off to land again
So goodnight.

And I'd might break
Cause I'm living on the air tonight
Wondering how to pour out this fire
Cause I'm living on the air tonight.

Well, I'm crawling down the edge right now
Head couldn't make this right.
I've been sharing some elses's shoes
Half my life.
And even though I've never been there
Gonna find my way back home.
Only home will love you strong
Only home will keep you warm
Only home will love you strong
Only home.

And I'd might break
Cause I'm living on the air tonight
Wondering how to pour out this fire
Cause I'm living on the air tonight.

Yeah, I'm living on the air tonight. (x3)

Keep your heart on the jar tonight
Cause it's final place
Won't you just share some tears.

Thanks to jj.
