Broken man has two roads
He can told,
Bottles on be on that thing to grace.
Where every smile shot can seem
What luck should be
A lonely home can make him mad that way.

chorus:

I really want her,
But do I need her?
There's no one to thrill
Like women and wine.
If I really love her,
You know I would leave her
Two things can kill
Like women and wine.

Man can go to places only he know
Sing a song or two
About the heart break
Once in a while, music leads to one thing
Or maybe it's the bottle
It's to blame.

chorus: x2

I really want her,
But do I need her?
There's no one to thrill
Like women and wine.
If I really love her,
You know I would leave her
Two things can kill
Like women and wine.

I really want her,
But do I need her?
