Oh darling
I can smell your perfume in my clothes this morning
I guess it's dirty dancing but I've always cheated before
And last night
Last night is so confusing but I think you're adorable

But you are not the answer that I need
A short romance wearing the heart on the sleeve
'Cause I was lonely and you were mine
But maybe we could have a drink sometime
And when the city's turning cold it's you and me
And when the lights go out I'm right up on my feet
And say that it's the last time I spend winter here
But I know there's no way that I could disappear here

Oh darling
I don't care if there's nothing behind those pretty eyes
I guess it's shallow and empty but those people are such a bore
'Cause tonight
Tonight we're painting the town just like we don't care
And then we'll tell all the people that should've been there

We're only a day away.
