If we're not losers we have to dream baby
We've gotta keep our heads down
Any career will kill your dreams
We've gotta leave this town

And it's all too late for all those second chances
All those fine romances
We'll just be drinking for feelings we don't have
And the real things we will never catch

It's ok
It never matters to me
And I'll stay
If you stay here with me

Have you seen all the people breaking down
Making careers of their lives
All the talking and new ideas
Trying to make anything bright

And it's still hard to reach you
Everytime that I see you I'm still utterly chanceless
But what about all the movies and all the losers
That success, there's a way for me I guess

It's ok
It never matters to me
And I'll stay
If you stay here with me
And if we're not losers we have to dream
And if you're with me it's time to leave
All the heroes are going away but we'll see
If there's a place left for you and me

And if we're not losers this is our last chance
I want to be loser that won
This is our last chance and our last run
And all the heroes are lost and gone

And if we're not losers we have to dream
And if you're with me it's time to leave

All the heroes are going away but we'll see
If there's a place left for you and me
