I remember the night I fell in love
I was higher than the ceiling by then
And I've forgotten every word we said
Yeah I've forgotten everything but the feeling
That this was something that I couldn't live without Then when the club closed down we fell into different cars
I thought that you would fall into my arms
But that's nothing I worry about now

And I remember the ride and the sweet sweet time
The 24 hour trip to make you mine
All the whisky shots to make you talk
And all the doobie to keep you from walking away
I never thought that I could be so charming
I never thought that I could keep it up
And I bet you never thought of me like that Until I kissed you on the stage in the central park

I'd be in trouble without you

Do you believe in love songs?
Cause I don't believe in love songs
If they're not about you
And it's the kind of love
That nobody writes about
It's never gonna be a movie sweet enough
'Cause there are no actors as sweet as us
