Everyday, after school, during class, in the hallway People's faces slowly breaking
Why does nobody care

And I look around
To people laughing, people pushing
So I make a sound
These are the words that come out

Stop now, you don't know the way it hurts
Just look around, you're hurting people everywhere
When we think we've had enough, the day is almost through
Stop now, you don't know the way it hurts

You don't know what they go through, at home and then at school Pushed around, not good enough that's what it's like when you're thought bad of

And I look around
To people laughing, people pushing
So I make a sound
These are the words that come out

Stop now, you don't know the way it hurts
Just look around, you're hurting people everywhere
When we think we've had enough, the day is almost
through
Stop now, you don't know the way it hurts

Why don't you go to their side, to see what it feels like I'll tell you that it feels bad, you just don't know what they've had

And I look around
To people laughing, people pushing
So I make a sound
These are the words that come out

Stop now, you don't know the way it hurts

Just look around, you're hurting people everywhere
When we think we've had enough, the day is almost
through
Stop now, you don't know the way it hurts

Stop now, you don't know the way it hurts
Just look around, you're hurting people everywhere
When we think we've had enough, the day is almost
through
Stop now, you don't know the way it hurts

Stop now, you don't know the way it hurts
