"Laugh And Cry"

You entered you're my heaven
You spoke and you
Swept me off my feet
Your words linger in my mind
Oh your spirit lives and you live in me

Coz you're the only one who can make me laugh
And cry at the same time
And you're the only one
Who can make me lift my hands
Without being shy

Now I cannot control this
Coz I love it so
Fill me to the brim Lord
Fill me up more

Coz you're the only one who can make me laugh
And cry at the same time
And you're the only one
Who can make me lift my hands
Without being shy
