I hope that one day I'll figure this all out
So that I can finally let these feelings go.

Tough knowing it will take some time
I do believe there's still a change to concur all, all I want.

Corus:
Share with me one last change.
I know I can take what's given and never let it go.

I hope that one day I'll find a way to leave the anger
and hate all behind.
Still I'm hiding in my darkest past where forgiveness is kind of hard to Find.
Still I try.

Corus.
Share with me one last change.
I know I can take what's given and never let it go.

Bridge:
They say the truth will set you free,
But sometimes I doubt what they say.
Won't you help me give me a change.
