Maybe one day in time.
There will be a place for me.
If the world don't change,
Is there a way to live, to be?

I wish I had
An other palce to go.
But I have no home,
Nowhere to go.

Thought the time had come
To change the way they look at me.
But I can't believe
'Cause they do not believe in me.

I wish I had an other place to go.
But I have no home,
Nowhere to go.

I can not explane
In words how I feel.
There must be somewhere else
That I can be for a while.

I wish I had an other place to go.
But I have no home,
Nowhere to go.

Call me unbroken
For no reason.
Maybe if you don't see.
You might break me.
