I believed in him until he broke my heart
I believe that love sold me a bitter pill and I swallowed hard

But now you're here
And I feel my fears are...

Coming back to haunt me
Are you just here to taunt me
All my love has died

You pull me from the deep end
My heart wants to beat again
Could you be loving me back to life?

Without love how can I live?
I think he took it all and now I've nothing left to give

Are you real?
Is what I feel just...

Coming back to haunt me
Are you just here to taunt me
All my love has died

You pull me from the deep end
My heart wants to beat again
Could you be loving me back to life?

You lift me from the ashes
Keepin' me from crashing
Making me feel alive

You pull me from the deep end
Show me I can breathe again
You could be loving me back to life.
