Here today, gone tomorrow
Were just some words that people said
Until today, until this moment
I never knew just what they meant
We came so close
Lost you almost
Time's precious
Don't waste it

Live one beat at a time
Each day of your life
Keep each promise you make
Give more than you take
'Cause it won't last forever
So make each moment matter
One beat at a time

I see the sun a little brighter
The sky has never looked so blue
I count the stars, I count my blessings
And I thank God I still have you
We came so close
I lost you almost
Time's precious
Don't waste it
