When love was new it was grand
We sat and gaze at the band
They were playing and keep singing our sonata of love

Why did we quarel and part,
What have u done to my heart
Now I'm praying and keep singing
My sonata of love

Love is just a gamble
To lose would be to cruel
We can't go on like this
Without you how could I exist

Nothing they say now your gone
Nothing is left but our song
Yet I'm praying ang keep singing my sonata of love

Nothings the same now your gone
Nothing is left but our song
Yet I'm praying ang keep singing my sonata of love...
