Iâ€™m having my doubts
Bad thoughts are running through my brain
I said this wouldnâ€™t
Happen to me
I feel the dark cloud
Coming over my head
Itâ€™s not supposed to rain today
At least thatâ€™s what he said

I know. I believe. Iâ€™m scared

This will be the last time
That I talk to you
Know in my heart
That itâ€™s not true
Hope is the hardest
When itâ€™s all that you have

My vision
Is turning blue

I know Iâ€™m safe
Cause you hold me in Your hands
Why do I regress?
Iâ€™ll never understand
Like angels and demons
Pulling on my heart
Please save me
Iâ€™m quite a baby

So much has changed in my life
I can see more clear
Than before
I want all that life has to offer
Even when I know
That itâ€™s wrong
