Who'd you think you're f*cking with,
You're gonna lose it all, better watch your lips, move
on, move on.
And don't you know you're a wasted man,
I hope you drown in guilt, don't you understand, move
on, move on.

Are you glad I'm gone, like the ones before; did I turn
you down?
All the lies you choose, you gonna run like I should have done. (You see)
How many days belong, to a place, I'm sure you never come around.
I bet ya like what you lose, it's even better than it ever was, to me.
Well are you glad I'm gone, like the ones before.
I bet you worry how, things gonna turn around these days.

Who do you, who'd you think you are, and did you think about.
We could've had it all, look at me.

Who'd you think you're f*cking with,
You're gonna lose it all, better watch your lips, move
on, move on.
And don't you know you're a wasted man
I hope you drown in guilt, don't you understand, move
on, move on.

And you know my man, got to understand, why you came along.
And all the tales you told, well they were coming from another one, you see
And are you glad I'm gone, like the ones before.
I bet you worry how, things gonna turn around these
days.

Who do you, who'd you think you are, and did you think
about.
We could've had it all, look at me.

Who'd you think you're f*cking with,
You're gonna lose it all, better watch your lips, move
on, move on.
And don't you know you're a wasted man
I hope you drown in guilt, don't you understand, move
on, move on.

About the man knows what she wants, about the man
knows what she needs.
About the man knows what she wants, but she doesn't
want you.
About the man knows what she wants, about the man
knows what she needs.
About the man knows what she wants, but she doesn't
want you.

Who'd you think you're f*cking with,
You're gonna lose it all, better watch your lips, move
on, move on.
And don't you know you're a wasted man
I hope you drown in guilt, don't you understand, move
on, move on.
[x2]

And don't you know you're a wasted man
I hope you drown in guilt, don't you understand, move
on, move on.
