You change like the wind
And fly like a bird
Never knowing what you're heading to
Swim swim away
Leave me in bitter haze

Always leave with burning desire
Thoughts of you spread like wildfire
Say what you need just take what you want
Leave me to rest my love is all burnt up

I cannot work you out
But I like you that way
Never knowing what you're heading to
Close your eyes count to ten
Just don't walk out again

Always leave with burning desire
Thoughts of you spread like wildfire
Say what you need just take what you want
Leave me to rest my love is all burnt up

I wont crumble again
You said lets put it all to rest
No I can't let you do that
