Lights ahead, road beneath me
Nothing's gonna change
And if it does I'm leaving
And taking you with me

David

You dream about living with your friends
And I dream about dying with the stars
Not everybody's dreams come true
But mine will I promise you

Write your name on my arm
So I don't forget who you are
And when the rains come
I'll lock all the doors and tie you close to me

Past behind, you beside me
We could never stay
We let the grass grow too long
And all the birds are flying south for the winter

David

Write your name on my arm
So I don't forget who you are
And when the rains come
I'll lock all the doors and tie you close to me

'Cause I've waited for too long
To just let you move on
My arm is so heavy with the name that carries
All the blood to my heart

David

Write your name on my arm
So I don't forget who you are
And when the rains come
I'll lock all the doors and tie you close to me
I'll lock all the doors and hold you close to me
