

Anna Coddington

"Never Change"

Visit "Never Change" on MotoLyrics.com

Your one true love, I could've been her
I would have thrown out all my shoes for you
I could have learned how to be quiet
Keep to myself except to tell you to

Never change
I don't want you to ever change

I gave you space, you gave me flowers
I cleaned up dishes and dreams of changing the world
I went to half way and then to the end
That's where I found you
That's when I knew that you would

Never change
I didn't want you to ever change
I only wanted to stay the same

You are perfect, I'm perfect for you
If you can't see that, then I'm willing to change
I walk a fine line, I forget myself
This world's unstable but I love you because you

Never change
I adapt so you never have to change
I only want for us to stay the same
Never change
Never change
Never change

Visit Anna Coddington page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.