I thought about the words you said
So I shut the door and closed my eyes
All the words inside my head
I'm sick and tired of all these lies
I know you don't care at all
Took you eight long months to call

Chorus:

Back away boy, back away
I'm not your toy to play with and throw out
Let me tell you what I'm about
It's anything but you, anything
And anyone but you, anyone
We're done

Boy, don't you ever think
That I would take you back and be so weak
Finally I'm strong enough
To cut you off and call your bluff
I know you don't care at all
Took you 8 long months to call

Chorus:

Back away boy, back away
I'm not your toy to play with and throw out
Let me tell you what I'm about
It's anything but you, anything
And anyone but you, anyone
We're done

Bridge:

You broke my heart in pieces
But I put it together
You got no hold on me
Finally I see
That I can move on from you

Chorus:

Back away boy, back away
I'm not your toy to play with and throw out
Let me tell you what I'm about

It's anything but you, anything
And anyone but you, anyone

And I'll go place that you'll never go
I'm over you now, It's time that you know

Back away boy, back away
I'm not your toy to play with and throw out
Let me tell you what I'm about
It's anything but you, anything
And anyone but you, anyone
We're done, We're done

I thought about the words you said
So I shut the door and closed my eyes
