Chasing away in a place where the light is all gone Ride around it's over now, the final seed isn't old Change me when I'm out of line Bring your feelings to the floor this time, so we can finally end this

Aive for a Minute...

Wasting away in your hate, now you see that you're wrong
White it out; just erase all the time that you owe Leave things just where you found them
Safety feels just like a pain inside, I need to finally end this

If you smile keep it in mind that it feels as though we waited all the way
Let the sublime dissolve...

Crazy to stay with no mind no belief of where you belong
Ride around broken ground; stake a claim to the throne

Leave things just where you found them
Safety feels just like a pain inside

If you smile keep it in mind that it feels as though we
waited all the way
Let the sublime dissolve...
If you smile keep it in mind that it feels as though we
waited all the way
Let the sublime dissolve...
