It hurts so much to see you love someone else
It hurts so much to keep on walking down
This lonely road
The only place Iâ€™ve ever known
Iâ€™ll be fine itâ€™s not like Iâ€™m not used to it
Thereâ€™s nothing you could do or say
To make my feelings change

Gonna get rough
Gonna get tough
But somehow Iâ€™ll find my way
Out in this crazy world
Even without you
Gonna be long
But Iâ€™m strong
And I know that thereâ€™s a boy
Out in this crazy world
Who can love this girl
A little bit better than you
Better than you better than you
A little bit better than you
Better than you better than you

Watching time pass by
Only confirms my doubt
Through the cracks of all your lies
The truth leaked out
Shouldnâ€™t come as a surprise
That Iâ€™m leaving now

Gonna get rough
Gonna get tough
But somehow Iâ€™ll find my way
Out in this crazy world
Even without you
Gonna be long
But Iâ€™m strong
And I know that thereâ€™s a boy
Out in this crazy world
Who can love this girl
A little bit better than you

Better than you better than you
A little bit better than you
Better than you better than you

Iâ'm moving on
Even when its hard
Iâ'm not afraid of all the pain and all the scars
The part of me unlike you
I understand the give and take
One doesn't cut it
Cause we need two
And he's gotta be better than you

Gonna get rough
Even without you
But Iâ'm strong
And I know that there's a boy
Gonna get rough gonna get tough
Gonna be long but Iâ'm strong
Gonna be long
But Iâ'm strong
Who can love this girl
Better than you better than you
A little bit better than you
Better than you better than you
