An Acoustic Sin - What If
From one friend to an other
What can we do for man kind
And from one brother to an other
Can we proclaim peace of mind

We don't care if we use
And we don't care if we abuse
Can we not make a truth

And what if the world should die
And what if we could literally touch the sky (my my)
What if, what if
What if we destroy all we know

From one enemy to another how can we stand each other's lives
And from one soldier to an other haven't we seen our deaths pass us by

Enough blood has bees shed
Enough people are dead
Lets clear this thing from our head

And what if the world should die
And what if we could literally touch the sky (my my)
What if, what if
What if we destroy all we know, know, know

And from one hand to an other
Lest pass the flame of unity
And from one mouth to an other (let us kiss)
The goddess of serenity yeah, yeah....yeah

And what if the world should die
And what if we could literally touch the sky (my my)
What if, what if
What if we destroy all we know

What if, what if um, um, ummmm....

So what if the world should die

And what if we could literally touch that sky

yeah, yeah

what if, what if X4
