Through the skin
First cut's the deepest
You made your mark and pulled away
With every move, fall your feature
I let you seep inside my veins

But nothing goes the way you plan
Constantly ashamed,... put down their cane
I can't take the blame, I still find myself here waiting
I needed you to see the love, see the love, see the love
we had
See the love, see the love, see the love we had

All this time
Is life worth living?
And I've tried everything to see
To save us from crippled feelings
Oh, we're always swimming against the waves
So, if you ever see my baby walking in the snow
Do her eyes still light up? Ohh...
Yeah, I need to know
I still find myself here waiting
I needed you to see the love, see the love, see the love
we had
See the love, see the love, see the love we had
See the love, see the love, see the love we had

(See the love, see the love, see the love we had See the love, see the love, see the love we had)
