Its only Christmas
Its only loneliness
Your fevered dream it
Just puts my heart to rest
You saw us both,
As a ghost,
As a soul,
As a breath that comes inside when it's cold

Well it's Christmas time in all throughout the land
I want to hold you close and try to make it right

It's only Christmas
It's only loneliness
It's seems so endless,
The way things pile in
Oh baby cold
Turns us all into stone
We ain't strong enough
To let it all just go

Well it's Christmas time and all the lights are bright
I want to hold you close and burn them in your eyes

Inside my empty walls, and all that I've lost.

Well it's Christmas time and the world is just going to dream,
Well we feel alright but nothings as it seems
And life keeps bringing us downâ€¦this time around
