Dear, I fear that we've gone wrong
You've always hung me from the gallows
Well I don't feel I'll be forgiven

If you don't see it you can never walk away
If you don't feel it it's going to get harder everyday But you don't want love keeping you awake at night
'till you can sleep

Dear I feel that you've settled You've always pushed me in the shadow
Well I don't feel you'll be forgiven

When you wake up alone do you love me still?
Do you question the choice you made?
Do you wake up at all?
