Sittin' in this cafe, 11:45, people walkin' by Sippin' on my coffee, this corner booth just waitin' on you
Fifteen more minutes
Is that all the time that I have left

What should I say
How can I make you see
My heart is breakin', I can't take it
Why, why did I let us go
Here I am at the end of my rope
Hangin' on hope

I'm all tied up in knots, here you come, it's too late to run
Stumblin' over my thoughts, how can I undo what I've done
I was wrong, I admit it
Now I've just got to find a way to say it

What should I say
How can I make you see
My heart is breakin', I can't take it
Why, why did I let us go
Here I am at the end of my rope
Hangin' on hope

I miss the way you loved me
The way you used to feel about me
Baby could you please forgive me
Do you think that you could ever love me again

Why, why did I let us go
Here I am at the end of my rope
Hangin' on hope
