"The King Has Arrived"

Visit "The King Has Arrived" on MotoLyrics.com

Step inside and take a look at the horizon
See the river... silver, gold and shining steel

A true king's parade in it's pride and glory
The stag from King's Landing, fear the mob's story
Twelve banners waving with the northern winds
This is where it all ends, this is where it begins

"So long since I saw you my friend
You haven't changed a bit"
So long since I saw you my friend
You haven't changed a bit
Where's the demon of the Trident?
Is your perfume of blood and leather gone for good?

Splendour and beauty
Our king has arrived!
Knights and the bannermen
Our king has arrived!

Splendour and beauty
Our king has arrived!
With his knights and the bannermen
Our king has arrived!
