Come on down I need the inspiration
Like to find myself in a sticky situation
Fist and knives I won't last a night
But in a battle of wits I swear I'd survive
And I've been running down this long road Chasing dreams we've fallen down and gotten up and almost rip apart at the seams
We can taste it now it's sweet
It's soft and it's on our lips
And you can sing it back
You can sing it

Come on take off your shoes
Get comfy we're ready to roll
The time is now
The stage is set
Let's give them a show
Come on we're moving too fast
This town is so slow
The lights get bright
The crowd gets down
And I feel high

Sitting in limbo
You're feet keep the tempo

Blue skies in our eyes
This drop means the rest of our lives
You can send the rains to flood us out
And try to silence me (shhh)
But so long as we breathe
We'll leave them with something to sing

Come on take off your shoes
Get comfy we're ready to roll
The time is now
The stage is set
Let's give them a show
Come on we're moving too fast
This town is so slow
The lights get bright
The crowd gets down

And I feel high

Boys are boys and kids will dream

Just victims in this scene

We can't sweat it out no matter how hard we play

We can taste it now it's sweet it's soft it's on our lips

And you can sing it back

You can sing it
