Now break down these walls
These walls aren't strong enough
To keep you inside
We'll never see I to Eye
She said, I'm sorry I lied
But I do what I have to
To keep you around
It'd be a shame to lose you now
[Chorus:]
I know
I can't let you see me
When your wondering this all
I can't
Let you down
Knowing that your wondering this all

(You're withering away)
So now that I can
Leave you in this place
Without a care in my mind
I never felt safe here anyway
So how are you now?
You know that I'm gone
I'll always be the one who got away
[Chorus]
(The words that you say)
[Chorus]
(You won't be happy)
