Here we go again it's time to start right from the top,
You started feeling good, now why would you want this
to stop?

There's nothing stopping you so why'd you want to sit down?

Let's take it further and go and spend a night on the town.

I don't believe that this is fair.
No. Stuck in here while they're out there.

Lets go and enjoy every day,
As if it's not going to last.
We don't care about anything,
The bad things are all in the past...

The lights go out, and everybody's starting to jump,
Another drink or two then people will start wanting to hump.
People sneaking off so they can go and powder their nose,
It won't be long before people start losing their clothes...
Something here just is not right...
(No)
Will not leave without a fight.

Hang about, There's something missing...

Lets go and enjoy every day,
As if it's not going to last.
We don't care about anything,
The bad things are all in the past.

Lets go and enjoy every day,
As if it's not going to last.
We don't care about anything,
The bad things are all in the past

Ooo-oooo-ooo.

Lets go and enjoy every day,

As if it's not going to last.
We don't care about anything,
The bad things are all in the past

Lets go and enjoy every day,
And then, as if it's not going to last,
We don't care about anything.
