Well good evening everybody and welcome to this full three of the best that uncle sam could slam down and some fearless aussies get ready to get it on, we're about to go hot lappin', the track is in excellent shape, you're about to feel the ground pound folks as we get ready to rack 'em and stack 'em for hot laps

Dirt Racer whose gonna set quick time Whose gonna start this race at the head of the line Got the right rear tyre and it's locked on tight Got the big main wing and it's set just right
When the power goes down, and the horses bite
We'll you'd better believe there's gonna be a fight, tonight, alright

We're green

Dirt Racer, it's gonna be your night
Dirt Racer, you've got it all on the line
The whole wide world will know your name
When you're standing there in victory lane
Dirt Racer

Well general John Day leads 'em around in the you beaut ute as we get set for the four wide salute, come on ladies and gentlemen get up on your feet and salute these heroes, ooh the place is electric, you can cut the air with a knife

Got fresh faced kids just out of school Got wise old veterans, they ain't no fools Max, the throttle stompin' family man from Warnambool
When the best of the best they roll into town Talk is cheap time to settle this now
When the power goes down, and the horses bite
650 horses and they're gonna use every one of them
Well you'd better believe there's gonna be a fight,
tonight, alright

We're green

Dirt Racer, it's gonna be your night
Dirt Racer, you've got it all on the line
The whole wide world will know your name
When you're standing there in victory lane
Dirt Racer

All hell breaks loose as these guys crush the size nines to the firewall, hammering into turn one and two ooh we got one into the wall, they gas it up down the back straightaway smokin' those big right rear tyres, ooh we're gonna go three wide hold on to your heart pills, Drew Kruck is your race leader but here comes Furr he's got that puppy flat workin', up on the high line as they come out of four we've got a challenge for the lead

Dirt Racer, it's gonna be your night
Dirt Racer, you've got it all on the line
The whole wide world will know your name
When you're standing there in victory lane
Dirt Racer, it's gonna be your night
Dirt Racer, you've got it all on the line
The whole wide world will know your name
When you're standing there in victory lane

Come on race fans get up on your feet and make some noise for your new world series champ

This'll be the ride of your life

Well folks that's all from us at world series sprint cars but remember to drive home carefully, leave the speeding to us and gas it up on the track, ooh yeah
