They say men and women are worlds apart
And neither one are willing to travel that far
But I never bought in to psychological stuff
And never claimed to be a bonafide genius
But if men are from Mars and women are from Venus
I'm going to Venus

Strap me in, ship me out, beam me up Scotty
Take me to the land of those heavenly bodies
Stay here if you want to but just between us
If men are from Mars and women are from Venus
I'm going to Venus

Women want a man ain't afraid to commit
Take 'em out to dinner it's a candle lit
So I'm giving in to the battle of the sexes
And calling up ahead to make a reservation
But if men are from mars and women are from Venus
I'm going to Venus

If you come by the house and I'm not in
You can call me long long long distance
Got better things to do than sit around and talk
'Cause I'm blasting off this big red rock
