[Fabrizio]

The day we meet,
The way you lean against the wind,
And do not know that you are beautiful,
Or that anyone is watching you,
This is what I see.

And I notice how you hunger for surprise,
And do not think that you are tall enough,
Like you're standing on a mountainside alone,
This is what I see.

Ohhh...
You're not alone.

Now I see as I have never seen before.
Since that moment in the square,
When you're hat is carried in the air,
Just so you can chase it,
Just so I can be there,
This is how I know,
This is what I see,
This is love to me.
