And in our dreams there are better days
And in our dreams there are better ways
We live the life of fools and kings
Blinded by the jewels this world brings
So we say good bye to the other side
So we kiss and sigh
No longer anymore
Love has left this land
Your hand is in my hand
So we say goodbye
This time...

Letting go (3x)

Collapse myself into...

Letting go (3x)

Perhaps I've fallen through...

Letting go (3x)

This new sensation...

Letting go...

This My salvation...

So we say good bye
To the other side
So we kiss and sigh
No longer anymore
Love has left this land
Hand is in my hand
So we say goodbye
This time...

Letting go (3x)

Collapse myself into...

Letting go (3x)

Perhaps I've fallen through...

Letting go (3x)

This new sensation...

Letting go...

This my salvation...

Can all this seem to be another way
To we believe we can hope to stay
Livin our lie to fulfill our dreams
Consciously reminded within our needs
Still we hope and try
Cover and hide
Still we shift the light
In the lies deep in side
Something I couldnt stand
Your hand is in my hand
Time to say goodbye
Again...

Letting go (3x)

Collapse myself into...

Letting go (3x)

Perhaps I've fallen through...

Letting go (3x)

This new sensation...

Letting go...

This My salvation...
