Guess I'm gonna miss you when you go away
Dressing down the issue - everyone's okay
But who's gonna know when the right one's goin'?
Guess I'm gonna miss you when you go away

So, don't go to warsaw
Don't leave california
Don't treat it like it's less than what it was Retreating's the wrong way (I don't have a reason)
To prove you don't need me (to keep you from leaving)
So, don't go to warsaw, just because

We were too affraid to take it seriously
Thinking about yourself just comes so easily
But who's gonna know when the right one's goin'?
Guess I'm gonna miss you when you go away
