"Bull"

The girl told me about her life
I listened intently to her story
And man, has she gone through lots of strife
I wear her bull around my neck
I always have a picture of her in my head
I knew there was something that I had to tell her
I hope she heard me when I said,
I love you and I always will, because you are my only true love!
She reminds me of an angel with wings
And she looks so pretty when she sings
Her hair looks wonderful when shining in the sun
I need to tell her that she is the only one
I love you and I always will, because you are my only
true love!
