Where nobody gets to know
What I want to tell them
But you say no
I understand why you
Don't want to tell them
I understand why you won't let me talk
But do you understand
The feelings I have for you
Do you understand?
That I want to tell the world
That we are together and I want to say
That the happiest I've been was the day
That you told me you'd be by my side
I want to tell you that you are the love of my life
Downlow, Downlow, Downlow, Downlow
Keeping it on, keeping it on
I'm going to stick to the decision you make
So for now I agree to be fake
Just so that you know their will be only you
No second best in my book, forget about you know who
