My pretty little angel eyes, every little thing you do to me

I know your love will kill me

Pretty little angel eyes, every little word you throw at me

I know someone will break us down

Forgive them too blinded to see

[Chorus:]

Because it's third strike and out; hitting the balls in the light

Greenfield of life

Third strike, I'm done; missed the test flight to the stars

Greenfield of life

Adrenaline starts to pump, get in to a state of misery

This time no one can take me

I only see it black or white, beaten by my own hypocrisy

This time I want you to hold me down

Forgive those who did not believe

[Chorus:]

Because it's third strike and out; hitting the balls in the light

Greenfield of life

Third strike, I'm done; missed the test flight to the stars

Greenfield of life

I can never believe in what I see; I can never foretell about the need

I am a liar I play it in repeat; I am the fire you never gonna see

I can never believe in what I see; I can never foretell about the need

I am a liar I play it in repeat; I am the fire you never gonna see

[Solo]

Someone will break us down; forgive them too blinded to see

[Chorus:]

Because it's third strike and out; hitting the balls in the light

Greenfield of life

Third strike, I'm done; missed the test flight to the stars

Greenfield of life

Third strike and out; hitting the balls in the light

Greenfield of life

Third strike, I'm done; missed the test flight to the stars
