"Last Stand"

I'm all alone, you're far away
I never learned from my mistakes
I should have known just what to say
To make you wanna stay

You were always the one giving
I was always there to take it
Take your heart and break it

And I'll never make it without you
I need a second chance
'Cause I wanna make it about you
I'll make it my last stand

It took a moment to see
It wasn't you, it was me
I couldn't let you in

Now I'm ashamed
I pushed you away from me
Now I'm afraid it's too late to save again

Miss you the most when I sleep
You turn my nightmares into dreams
Can't lose hope, it's killing me
I'm the one who made you leave

But if I just take a chance now
Open up and finally reach out
Can I save it all somehow?

And I'll never make it without you
I need a second chance
'Cause I want to make it about you
I'll make it my last stand

It took a moment to see
It wasn't you, it was me
I couldn't let you in

Now I'm ashamed

I pushed you away from me
Now I'm afraid it's too late to save again

I'm all alone, you're far away
I finally found the words to say

And I'll never make it without you
I need a second chance
'Cause I want to make it about you
I'll make it my last stand

It took a moment to see
It wasn't you, it was me
I couldn't let you in

Now I'm ashamed
I pushed you away from me
Now I'm afraid it's too late to save again

Won't be afraid, won't push you away
