I'm not afraid no more
These walls we've built
It's about time we tear them down
These walls are only there to separate
What is unity worth when there only are complaints
I'm not afraid, are you?
There are far too many dividing lines
These lines are only there to separate
And to illuminate the lack of unity

Fuck the borders, fuck the dividing lines
Communication that's what it's all about

Unite to win...

I'm not afraid no more
With sincerity and honesty
How can we go wrong
Break down the walls only there to separate
We're all in this together it might not be too late

Fuck the borders, fuck the dividing lines
Unite to win...

I'm not afraid...
