The first time I saw your face
There was a fire in your soul
I felt that first embrace
As a fire in your soul
Where has it gone now?
Where has it gone now?
Haven't seen you in a long long time
Except maybe in my dreams
But nothing's ever yours to keep
Nothing's ever as it seems
Except the fire
Except the fire
Oh darkness, oh darkness
Roll over me tonight
Oh darkness, oh darkness
Roll over me tonight
The first time I saw your face
There was a fire in your soul
I felt that first embrace
As a fire in your soul
Where has it gone now?
Where has it gone now?
Oh darkness, oh darkness
Roll over me tonight
Oh darkness, oh darkness
Roll over me tonight
Oh darkness, oh darkness
Roll over me tonight
Rolling over, rolling over
And I want you
To be the fire
To be the fire
Oh darkness, oh darkness
Roll over me tonight
Oh darkness, oh darkness
Roll over me tonight
Oh darkness, oh darkness
Roll over me tonight
Rolling over, rolling over
