In my head I'm a 1000 miles away,
But when I open up my eyes again,
I see I'm still stuck here with this.
There's too much of nothing here for me,
I'm sure I need to get away,
You can come with me if you fell the same.

We could find a world we've never known,
We could find a world beyond our own,
And take the first step out of here.
Well I know that there's no guarantee,
And there's a time and a place for everything,
Still no one knows what tomorrow brings.

When everyone you know has plans,
The time has come to break the chain.

Now's the time to act, so if you've had enough.
Leave this place behind, it will only hold you back.

Now I figured out my destiny and I'm not sure,
I like what I see, the man I once thought I could be,
Is suppressed by my restrictions,
And my responsibilities, someday soon I know I'll be free.

The promises you made yourself,
They can't be reached they fade away.

Now's the time to act, so if you've had enough.
Leave this place behind, it will only hold you back.
