I'm not weighted down by fears but I carry a few (Time flies by)

And most of them passed away since I shared them with you

(I'll ask for no more)

Maybe from here on the angst that suppressed me will die

(Time flies by)

I've been waiting so long for the right time to come back to life

(I'll ask for nothing more)

Hear me and I'll hear you - See me and I'll see you

Give me some guidelines to grow; I'll develop with pride (Rise above)

Grant me a whisper of hope and I'll scream it out loud (I'm getting closer)

The scared little helpless boy in the shape of a grown man (Rise above)

Just kicked in the doors to the places from where he once ran

(I'm so much closer now)

I sense your presence close behind

I searched and found some peace of mind

Place your worries next to mine

Find yourself some peace of mind

When all of our salty tears has fallen down and dried (Survive the storm)

We turn to ourselves just to see that we're perfectly fine

(I'm here beside you)

If all the setbacks through the years have made your mind sick

(Survive the storm)

I promise I'll help you rebuild yourself brick after brick

(I'm always by your side)

I sense your presence close behind

I searched and found some peace of mind

Place your worries next to mine
Find yourself some peace of mind
