He's the leader of his kingdom
Lord of his domain
He can't wait for doomsday

Waiting for you to cross his line
He'll blow you away

Survive, try to save all that's his
First it is moonshine, then his kids

He's forever training
It's his idea of fun
Waiting for the day
He can kill the commie scum

Waiting in anticipation
For the abolishment of this nation
Can't imagine the sensation
Standing over fresh kill masturbating

A lot of people think
His views are too extreme
Because his bunker walls are lined
With cans of pork and beans
