An insatiable greed decides the call
His waist-band too tight-his shirt;too small Big little man dots the "I's" crosses
"t's" adds the noughts to the box that shows his fee's
He's on the way up, the company
Ladder - one track mind
A shoe-shine boy to his boss

He's filled his cup
His wife just gets sadder
Friends left behind to late he'll realize â€¡His loss

Drunk - drunk with power!
See him kiss ass
In the sports hall shower
Drunk - drunk with power!
Adds another brick to his ivory tower
