Been dragged to hell
And beyond for so long
Believed what you said
I was wrong
Left for the vultures
Been dragged through the dirt
Words stab like nails
Left wounds that still hurt

Scars show
But you don't understand
Blood flows
Drawn by my own hand

You coloured my world with shit
Our world with shit again
You coloured our world
With your bullshit

A witness to my own funeral pyre
Mind war rages, never cease-fire
Amongst the wreckage
I'm baptised in flames
Drowning in crimson
Existence of pain
