Want to follow your love

Oh Yeah

City lights are winking at me as I touch down on this golden day, ey

And every breath I take is filled with all
Your magic what more can I say, lady

And though the leaves are turning brown
They can't turn me to be sad, no

'Cause when the wind comes in it
Blows them all away out of my mind

And if the clouds appear its starts to Look like stormy weather

Then I will make it clear like
With you by my side it will be better

'Cause I want to follow your love into the future
You're part of me life

See I want to follow your love
Into the light

Lonely nights I'm dreaming of
You when I was so very far away

Empty days off wishing I could see
You're smiling face and hear you say, baby

Now that you are here it starts
To look like brighter weather

Than I must make it clear that
With you by my side it will be better

'Cause I want to follow your love into the future
You're part of me life

See I want to follow your love
Into the light

'Cause you say I'm the one
Who makes you hurt before

And you expect my call
Now I'm back with you

I will never go away
Until all the mountains fall
Believe me, oh, ey, alright

'Cause I want to follow your love into the future
You're part of me life

See I want to follow your love
Into the light
