I study you so well
I know your every smell
From the back of the room
I can't learn a thing, all I can do is stare at you
But my body's all a wreck
An adolescent mess
They call me names cuz I can't squeeze in, don't know how to act
But I would not be ashamed

If you'd stay with me forever
We'll be weird together
We'll make all our own rules
Create a new kind of cool

We'd walk the halls with ease
Say all the smartest things
They'll wish they knew what makes us laugh
And what cigarettes we smoke
Or even if we do

If you'd stay with me forever
We'll be weird together
We'll make all our own rules
Create a new kind of cool

We'd never lose we could pick and choose
Who soaks up all our fame
We could shout or we could shut them out just to tarnish their names
And how I'd glow in my beauty
Cuz someone out there loves me

Cuz right now life ain't so fun
I don't have anyone
If you only knew the thing that we could do just me and you
Conquer the world, king and queen at age 13

If you'd stay with me forever
We'll be weird together
We'll make all our own rules

Create a new kind of cool
