You shine in my eyes
Frozen still, open wide
Come down, fill my heart
With a fire you flaunt
And I can't say a word
They would only sound absurd

Maybe you're my shooting star
Blindly falling through the dark
Burning a hole in my sky so fierce, so bright
Maybe it's all I need, so baby come shoot through me
Wishes won't survive on you tonight

If you stay for good
On the ground, think you could
It's not a life that you lead
Just a path following
Everybody else has you aiming at yourself

Maybe you re my shooting star
Blindly falling through the dark
Burning a hole in my sky so fierce, so bright
Maybe it's all I need, so baby come shoot through me
Wishes won't survive on you tonight

Silver tear, fall for me and forever
You belong her, my love can fly you higher
Higher, higher

Maybe you re my shooting star
Blindly falling through the dark
Burning a hole in my sky so fierce, so bright
Maybe it's all I need, so baby come shoot through me
Wishes won't survive on you tonight

Maybe you're my shooting star
Blindly falling through the dark
Burning a hole in my sky so fierce, so bright
Maybe it's all I need, so baby come shoot through me
Wishes won't survive on you tonight
