lying here upon this cross nothing changes, nothing lost and the words are softly spoken hearts of stone are seldom broken

(chorus)
you could never love me as much as i do
the way that i do

you could never carry this cross i bear hiding in the shadows
i find my comfort there i stand alone
i glimpse within as you come taste this first deadly sin
(chorus)

(slow part)
sleepwalking through another daydream sweet perfection in the waters face no more rapture between us softly your hopes been laid to waste (2x) save your prayers for another sunday smile allow your promises to wither in denial save your lies for your false religious trial save your kisses for your god forsaken child

(chorus)2x
